AKERS ELLIS REAL ESTATE & RENTALS

Akers Ellis Real Estate & Rentals offers a level of local knowledge and dedication that is unmatched when it comes to real estate and vacation rentals. Our real estate and rental teams are led by individuals with years of hospitality, resort, and property management experience, including former high ranking executives at Kiawah Island Golf Resort and Wild Dunes Resort. We focus on vacation rentals on both Kiawah Island and Seabrook Island and provide real estate services to the communities south of the Charleston Peninsula including Folly Beach, James Island, Johns Island, Kiawah Island, Seabrook Island, Wadmalaw Island, and West Ashley.

By focusing on highly personalized owner and guest service, we provide a real estate and vacation experience that is simply better than the ones offered by a larger provider. And most importantly, our loyalty lies to our clients and not a single development, developer, or resort owner.

Founded in 2007, our goal has not been to become a large company but rather a great company that delivers better results to our customers than our competitors. As a result, Akers Ellis Real Estate & Rentals has attracted employees, managers, and agents that are highly professional and sophisticated and share our dedication of providing the highest level of service possible.

We are also committed to helping and serving in the communities in which we live and work. In addition to a host of ongoing charitable donations and volunteer work, Akers Ellis team members have served in various roles in our community including: Johns Island Fire Commissioner, Pastor of Calvary of the Sea Islands, President of the Kiawah Seabrook Island Exchange Club, Seabrook Island Architectural Review Committee member, and various Kiawah homeowner association boards.

KIAWAH ISLAND

Located 25 miles south of historic Charleston, South Carolina, Kiawah Island has earned a reputation for excellence in world-class activities and amenities, while preserving a natural and unspoiled habitat for generation after generation to enjoy. The island's 10-mile pristine beach is rated among the top 10 US family beaches by National Geographic Traveler magazine. Hosting the 2012 PGA Championship is Kiawah's most recent claim at establishing itself among the great golf destinations in the world. The famed Ocean Course was the stage for the 1991 Ryder Cup matches, one of the most exciting in the event's history, earning it the nickname "The War by the Shore." The Pete Dye masterpiece was also host to the 2007 Senior PGA Championship. Golfers can enjoy four other public courses when visiting Kiawah Island: Cougar Point, Osprey Point, Turtle Point, and Oak Point. Claiming the #1 ranking in the world by Tennis Resorts Online, the avid or novice player will have plenty of opportunity for time on the courts. Kiawah features tennis locations in both the West Beach and East Beach areas of the island, offering Har-Tru clay (19) and hard (5) courts. There are numerous other activities to consider that will allow you to reconnect with nature and family, including swimming, biking, kayaking, and fishing. The Night Heron Park area offers many family amenities, including the nature center and children's camp and programs. If a slower pace is more to your liking, you can enjoy the spa or visit the island's various shops to peruse the latest fashions and variety of unique items. There are dining options to fit everyone's tastes both on the island and within minutes via car to nearby Johns Island and Charleston. Many people have come to call Kiawah home after discovering the natural beauty of the seemingly endless beaches and the ever-changing salt marshes and lagoons offering a haven for abundant wildlife, all located just 40 minutes from historic Charleston.

Kiawah Island is comprised of three main areas: West Beach Village, East Beach Village, and Vanderhorst Plantation.

West Beach Village was Kiawah Island's very first neighborhood development and has been able to keep its original attraction to vacationers. The quiet atmosphere surrounding villas, homes, Straw Market shops and restaurants, and the close proximity to the beautiful beach and the West Beach Tennis Center continues to draw visitors year round. Communities within West Beach Village include: Courtside Villas, Duneside Villas, Fairway Oaks Villas, Greenslake Cottages, Inlet Cove Cottages, Seascape Villas, Shipwatch Villas, Sparrow Pond Cottages.

East Beach Village is located in the center of Kiawah Island and offers villas and cottages for your vacation stay.
